FARM BUREAU WILL BEGIN AN INTENSIVE CAMPAIGN MONDAY

Effort Will Be Made to Procure at Least 800 Members to Mason County Farmers' Organization—Campaign Closes on October 4th.

An intensive campaign will begin on Monday of next week for increasing the membership of the Mason County Farm Bureau, an organization which was organized in this city only a few weeks ago but which in this short time has grown to a membership of over one hundred farmers.

The campaign will be put on systematically under the direction of the officers of the organization and during the campaign period which will extend from Monday until October 4—every farmer in Mason county will be given an opportunity to become a member of the bureau. Campaign teams composed of the present members of the bureau, will canvass every precinct in the county and call at every farm house.

The worth of the organization to the farmers of the county is well known to every man in the county. Its worth has been demonstrated several times recently and it is a well known fact that through co-operation the farmers can better work and better accomplish those things which they have long known needed to be accomplished for the betterment of farm life. The bureau is not a selfish organization, organized for the purpose of putting any one out of business but to help the farmers of the county keep in business.

The officers hope to increase the membership in this drive to at least 800 members and these farmers are so very much interested in the movement that it is pretty safe to say it will be done.

NO MORE BAND PRACTICE HELD THIS WEEK

Prof. J. H. Young, of the Mayesville Boys' Band, was called to his home near Georgetown, Ohio, this morning and will be gone until next Sunday. There will be no band practice for the balance of this week and no public concert on Friday night of this week. Members of the band are asked to take notice of this arrangement.

FRIDAY NIGHT AT NEPTUNE HALL

Many autumn trees and loads of golden rod will be used in decorating the Neptune hall for the big opening Autumn Dance given September 26 by The Terpsichorean Club.

RELATIVE OF LOCAL WOMEN DROWNED IN GULF STORM

Charles Fred Turner, Former Mason County Man, Who Was in Service of His Country, Drowned in Corpus Christi Flood.

Mrs. J. L. Sheeler, of the county, and her daughter, Mrs. Elmer Kirk, of Fourth street, left this morning for Danville, Ill., to attend the funeral of Mrs. Sheeler's nephew, Mr. Charles Fred Turner, which will be held there today.

Mr. Turner is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Turner, former residents of this county and of Brown county, Ohio, who was serving in the United States army along the Southern coast and was stationed at Corpus Christi when that city and section was struck by a terrific gulf storm several days ago. Mr. Turner was drowned in the great sweep of the gulf but his body was recovered and taken to the home of his parents in Danville.

So far as is known Mr. Turner was the only man from this section of Kentucky in the storm. He has many friends in Mason county who are grieved to hear this bad news.

WATER COMPANY NOTICE

All semi-annual Water Rents will be due October 1st, 1918, and are payable, for six (6) months in advance, at the office of the Mayesville Water Company, No. 208 Court Street. Three percent (3%) discount will be allowed on all accounts paid before October 15, 1918. All services for which payment in full for the six (6) months' term is not made before October 20th, 1918, will be shut off without further notice.

HENRY E. POGUE,
Acting Secy. and Treas.

WILL MOVE TO LEXINGTON

Mr. Sidney Keith, an employee of this division of the L. & N. railroad who has made his home in Mayesville for the past several years, has been transferred to another division of the road and will move in the near future to Lexington to make that city his future home. Mr. and Mrs. Keith have made many friends during their residence in Mayesville who are very sorry to see them leave but who wish them much success in their new home.

Although there are several reported to be grooming themselves for the race for councilman, there has not been a single candidate announced as yet. At this time in the year 1917 there were some ten or twelve announced candidates but probably the other city races brought on the fight earlier.

LOUISE FOX FOUND AT HOME OF FRIEND IN CANTON, OHIO

Mrs. Louise Fox Bushfield Had Become Distracted Fearing Marriage Would Make It Impossible For She and Her Husband to Finish School.

A Canton, Ohio, dispatch says: Following a country-wide search, Mrs. Louise Fox Bushfield of Mayesville, Ky., was found late yesterday in this city. She disappeared in Baltimore ten days ago while on her way to attend Columbia university. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Fox of Mayesville. Since her disappearance it was disclosed that she was married to George Irvin Bushfield, a student at Columbia university.

Mrs. Bushfield cried when confronted by her father and husband yesterday. She accompanied her husband to New York. She said she had become distracted because she had kept the secret of her marriage from her parents. She feared that if her marriage was revealed her husband and herself would be unable to complete their courses at Columbia university.

Mayesville relatives when asked in regard to the telegram this morning, stated that the telegram was true. The young lady had been found at the home of a friend in a suburb of Canton late Tuesday evening where she had been for several days. She was found by her father, husband and an operative of a Baltimore detective agency. The young lady said she had almost lost her mind worrying over her marriage not being known by her relatives and this accounts for the melancholy she suffered from while in Mayesville the past summer.

The locating of the young woman who has been missing since September 13—ten days—is a great relief to her immediate family and her many friends in Mayesville who feared she had met some bad end.

COMPLETING BOAT LIGHTS

Captain Stalder, of the Aberdeen-Mayesville Ferry Launce, expects to have all of the electric lighting system on the ferry boat installed this week. The large electric head light on the boat is now being installed and he will be able to handle tobacco wagons neatly until late in the night during the approaching season.

PLANNING FOR BIG DANCE

Arrangements are being made for the first big ball dance of the season which will be given by the Terpsichorean Club at Neptune Hall on next Friday evening. The committee on decorations is now at work making the hall beautiful with autumn leaves and flowers.

WILL SOON MOVE TO MAYESVILLE

Rev. J. A. Davis, the new pastor of the Mayesville Baptist church, hopes to move to Mayesville in the immediate future to make this city his home. He will not fully take up his work as pastor of the local church, however, until the Two Lick Church, which he is now serving, has a pastor on the field.

GOVERNOR BLACK TO SPEAK IN MAYESVILLE

The Democrats of Mayesville have announced that Governor James D. Black, candidate for governor on the Democratic ticket, will speak here on October 9th at the Court House.

We call the special attention of our readers to the announcement of City Treasurer January in another part of this issue informing the tax paying public that the penalty goes in all city taxes the first of November. It is expected that between now and that date there will be a great rush at the Collector's office in the Court House.

The prayer meeting service at the Third Street Methodist Church Thursday evening will be conducted by Mrs. J. H. Dodson. The choir will practice after prayer meeting. Some very fine new music has been secured for the choir which will be practiced for next Sunday. A full attendance of the singers is desired.

Rev. W. H. Morris, the popular pastor of the Forest Avenue M. E. Church, was presented with a good sized purse, at the meeting of the official board held a few evenings ago when the report for the annual conference was made. This year has proven one of the most successful in this old church's history.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Third Street M. E. Church will meet tomorrow (Thursday) at 2:30 p. m. A very important matter of business will come before the Society which requires the attention of every member. All are urged to be present.

MRS. W. E. STALLCUP, Pres.

FARM ACCOUNT EXPERT IS NOW IN MASON COUNTY

Expert From the Kentucky College of Agriculture Is Here to Assist Mason County Farmers in Installing Up-to-Date Bookkeeping.

County Agent George Kirk is spending today in the county with Mr. Kroft, an expert accountant who is now in the employ of the Kentucky College of Agriculture, and who is assisting the state agricultural agents in installing in the home of every farmer a complete and up-to-date bookkeeping system so that the farmers can tell just exactly what they are doing and what sort of a profit or loss they are making on their products and stock.

Mr. Kroft is spending the greater part of today in the Mayesville neighborhood where recently a live Community Club was organized and it is understood that quite a number of the farmers in that section of the county are planning to install this new system. It is worked out carefully by experts who have gone into the matter thoroughly and they have worked out one book in which the average farmer is able to keep a complete record of all of his transactions.

Before the expert leaves it is expected that many farmers in every district of the county will be running their farms as a merchant does his business.

TO ADMIT WOMEN

By order of the Trustees of Yale University, women are to be admitted to the Yale Law School with the beginning of the school year this fall. Under the terms of this new ruling any woman, who is a graduate of a recognized college, may take up the law course. The Board's action was a ratification of the recommendation made by members of the law school faculty. It places the law department on the same basis as the graduate and medical schools insofar as women are concerned.

PRAYER MEETINGS HELD ALL DAY TODAY

There will be prayer-meeting services held at the First Baptist church all day today. The first service was held at 6 o'clock this morning, another was held at noon, two will be held this afternoon and another at 7:30 tonight. Prayer meetings are being held in all Baptist churches in the South today for the success of the 75 Million Campaign.

WHAT DOES THIS GIRL WANT?

Some say—that there is a dominant desire, that every woman, rich and poor, has an over-powering craving for one thing, and that is a desire that is never satisfied. Others say—that women mostly want "her own way" or "the last word" or the moon and all the stars and so on—but see what Grace Darmond wanted in "What Every Woman Wants" at the Pastime tomorrow.

Messrs. Roland & Roland, Covington contractors who have been awarded the contract to resurface the Lexington and the Mt. Sterling pikes, have arrived in Mayesville with their big equipment which is now being unloaded at the C. & O. depot. They expect to begin work at the earliest possible date and complete the work before winter.

The Ledger was in error yesterday when it stated that Mrs. Sherman Arn was in Martinsville, Ind., with her parents. Mrs. Arn is now in the midst of her busiest season and her popular millinery parlors were never more crowded.

ORGANIZED PLAY IS TO BE INTRODUCED IN COUNTY SCHOOLS

Y. M. C. A. Expert Is Here to Spend Three Days With Mason County Schools Introducing a System of Organized Play.

Mr. L. R. Zerfoss, district Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., whose headquarters are in Lexington, arrived in Mayesville this morning and immediately went to the county with County School Superintendent George H. Turnipseed to instruct the teachers of the county schools in a system of organized play and helpful recreation.

Mr. Zerfoss is a specialist in this work and has had considerable experience throughout Kentucky in introducing a system of play which helps the school children develop mentally as well as physically and their play period is entered into more heartily by all the children and develops a much more helpful play than the old loose system of do as you like. The school authorities of the nation are endeavoring to make the recess periods count in the education of the child as well as the study and the recreation periods.

The consolidated high schools of the county will be visited first and the smaller schools later. Mr. Zerfoss, however, hopes to visit every school in Mason county during his three day visit to our county. The expense of this instruction is being paid by the State Y. M. C. A. and the State department of Education.

The district meeting of the Missionary Societies of the Southern Methodist Churches of the Mayesville District, is now in session at the First M. E. Church, South.

On Wednesday evening there will be an interesting program. Beginning at 7:30 p. m. an excellent musical program has been arranged; at which time Mrs. Peed and Mrs. Wallace Reese will sing a duet; and Miss Carolyn Fleet Hall of Covington, formerly of Mayesville, will render a solo.

Following this, Mrs. J. H. Spilman, President of Woman's Missionary Societies of Kentucky Conference, will address the audience.

Those who have formerly heard Mrs. Spilman will be there, and those who have not had such an opportunity should avail themselves of this one.

Mrs. Spilman is an exceptional speaker and we bespeak for her a large audience.

She will also be present at the day sessions of these meetings Wednesday and Thursday.

The public is invited to all these meetings.

SURVIVORS OF TWO REGIMENTS MEET IN ANNUAL REUNION

Good Attendance at Annual Reunion of Civil War Veterans Held at Beechwood Park Today—Interesting Program.

Survivors of the old Tenth Kentucky Cavalry and the Sixteenth Kentucky Infantry together with their sons and daughters and many grand children gathered at Beechwood Park today for the annual reunion of their association organized many years ago. Several of the old boys traveled many miles to attend the meeting, one coming from the state of Oklahoma to be present with his comrades.

The meeting was called to order by Vice President R. S. Hudson, of Fleming county and Captain Thomas Wood, the grand old of the regiments, led the opening prayer. Colonel R. R. Maltby, who is president of the association, was present and delivered a very interesting address. Rev. J. J. Dickey, pastor of the Second M. E. Church, South, delivered the address of welcome to the old soldiers and he was heartily applauded.

After the appointment of committees the election of officers was entered into and resulted in the re-election of all old officers with the exception of a Vice President and an Assistant Secretary who had died during the year. Mr. Ambrose Barnett, of Aberdeen, was elected a Vice President and Mrs. Collins was elected Assistant Secretary. The roll call of the veterans shows that during the year 12 have passed to the Great Beyond.

Beautiful music was rendered by Messrs. Omar Boggs, Alonzo Seaman and George N. Harding and R. S. Hudson, Captain Tom Woods and Rev. J. J. Dickey made memorial talks.

Hon. H. C. Curran, Mr. W. H. Meenach, Dr. John S. Rice and County Agent George Kirk were to deliver addresses at the afternoon session. The park auditorium was well filled at the afternoon session.

Complete official report of the meeting will appear in the Ledger in the next few days.

WHY SOLDIERS GET HOMESICK

Mrs. W. B. Arnold, of Arkadelphia, Ark., who is said to have the distinction of being the only mother who visited her son in France, has the following comment to make on the life of the American soldiers as she found it:

"The boys over there miss home life in having to do their own washing, and they don't boil their clothes, which, of course, is conducive to disease. Then, although the food is good—and I ate with the boys—lining up with mess tins and eating most any place does not induce good table manners.

"And their beds are not as comfortable as the beds they slept in at home. A boy wants a soft bed, and he gets it just right in an American home. These are the reasons the boys are homesick."

Washing their own clothes, missing mother's cooking and the home table, and lacking the soft comfort of their accustomed beds—these are things whose hardship the American soldier boys would indignantly repudiate. Yet, quite likely that Arkansas mother is right. It may be precisely such things—and the associations that go with them—that make the boys want to come back. They do not get sick of war so much as sick for home.

COVINGTON MAN SHOT BY HIGHWAY ROBBER

Covington, Ky., September 20.—Police are investigating the shooting of George Ashcraft, 60, of 313 Scott street, Covington, who was taken to St. Elizabeth hospital from Second street and Madison avenue, that city, Friday night with a wound in the right side. Hospital physicians, Saturday, said the wound is not serious.

Ashcraft was on his way home when accosted at Third street and Madison avenue by a white man, who ordered him to throw up his hands. The highwayman fired, Ashcraft said before he had time to comply with the demand. The man ran toward the river and escaped. Ashcraft was found lying on the ground at Second street and Madison avenue, one square from the scene of the shooting. The police are investigating a report that a man and a woman were near where the shooting took place. The man, according to witnesses, was seen running toward the river a short time after the shot was fired.

Rapid progress is being made by the Second Boys' Band according to those who have been attending their regular practices which are now being held at frequent and regular intervals.

He is truly a shiftless man who is too lazy to shift for himself.

HEED THE WARNING Many Maysville People Have Done So.

When the kidneys are weak they give unmistakable warnings that should not be ignored. By examining the urine and treating the kidneys upon the first sign of disorder, many days of suffering may be saved. Weak kidneys usually expel a dark, ill-smelling urine, full of "brickdust" sediment and painful in passage. Stinging kidneys often cause a dull pain in the small of the back, headaches, dizzy spells, tired, languid feelings and frequent rheumatic twinges.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys only. There is no better recommended remedy.

Maysville people endorse Doan's Kidney Pills.

Fred Dresel, tailor and justice of the peace, 1233 East Second Street, says: "I was troubled by inflammation of the bladder and annoyance from my kidneys. The kidney secretions burned in passage and often were retarded. I had severe pains across the small of my back which greatly interfered with my work. Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at Wood & Son's Drug Store, gave me prompt relief."

Mr. Dresel gave the above statement on February 6, 1908, and on November 14, 1916, he added: "I have had the same faith in Doan's Kidney Pills to-day as ever, for I haven't had any trouble with my kidneys since I last recommended them."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Dresel had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

GOV. BLACK AND THE L. & N. PASS

REVEALED BY TESTIMONY BEFORE THE INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION.

TOM RHEA ALSO INVOLVED

Candidate For Governor on Democratic Ticket and His Campaign Manager Are Confronted By Ugly Facts

During the investigation in 1913 by the United States Senate into the efforts of the L. & N. Railroad to improperly influence judges, jurors, and public officers in Kentucky, hearings were heard before the Federal Interstate Commerce Commission. The hearing was public, both sides were represented by well-known attorneys, and all the evidence was made a public record for the purpose of showing just what the L. & N. was doing to influence jurors and other officials in suits against the railroad company.

The following letter to B. D. Warfield, chief counsel for the L. & N. Railroad, written by James D. Black, of Louisville, at the time First Assistant Attorney General in the McCreary administration, and later Lieutenant Governor and now Governor and candidate for reelection to that office, was brought to light:

"Dear Mr. Warfield: Mr. William Tye, of this place, and the owner of the local newspaper, 'The People's News,' has recently sold said paper to Dr. Charles Davis, of this place. By virtue of some arrangement with the L. & N. R. Co., Mr. Tye holds a pass over a portion of the company's line in Kentucky. Because of said transfer of the ownership of said paper, Mr. Tye will have to surrender his pass, and Dr. Davis will likely apply for same instead. I write to ask, at the suggestion of Mr. Tye, to retain his pass during the remainder of the year. He agrees to assist me in the company's litigation in the courts. His service in this regard will amply justify the company in permitting him to hold the pass for said time.

"He is of a numerous and influential family, and some of his people are usually on the juries in our courts. I think it would be a good idea to allow free transportation for said time."

When Warfield received the letter he sent it on to W. L. Mapother, Vice President of the L. & N., with his O. K. and the following comment:

"Please note and return. Mr. Black, besides being one of the attorneys at Louisville, is also the First Assistant Attorney General of Kentucky under the present administration.

"Therefore, I think it will be well to comply with his request. Please let me know whether I may say to him that this will be done."

It will be observed that Assistant Attorney General (now Governor) Black recommended Tye's request because "he agrees to assist us in the company's litigation in the courts," and because "he is of a numerous and influential family, and some of his people are usually on the juries in our courts."

Try To Defend Act.

Governor Black on the stump has tried to defend his act on the ground that Tye was the editor of a Democratic newspaper, and an old friend of his, and he repeatedly asked his assistants if they also would not do favors for their friends.

Is it reasonable to suppose that the Vice President of one of the greatest railroads in the country would be asked to put his O. K. on the request of an obscure ex-editor unless said ex-editor could amply justify his services on the ground of being a member of a numerous and influential family? and "some of his people are usually on the juries in our courts," and unless the man who asked the favor for him was not at that time holding two jobs—one a state office and the other on the payroll of the L. & N. Railroad Company?

Carroll Raps Black.

Judge Carroll, during his recent Democratic primary campaign against Governor Black, declared from the stump time and time again in every part of the state:

"Governor Black is everywhere and every place confronted by that ugly and incriminating railroad letter. In every speech he spends half of his time in a pettifoggish way attempting to defend, explain and apologize for that incriminating and inexcusable thing.

"If he is the NOMINEE, it will stare at people from every telephone pole, billboard and public place in the state, and no Democratic speaker of respectability, save and except Governor Black, will have the effrontery to stand before any audience and undertake to defend it!"

Governor Black for years was the attorney for the L. & N. Railroad in his own community, representing the corporation in the conduct of personal injury and other suits brought against the company.

Rhea Also Involved.

The famous L. & N. pass exposure also involves another well-known Democratic leader, Thomas S. Rhea, Stanley's campaign manager in his race for the Senate a year ago, and now manager of the state Democratic campaign this year for the Black ticket and slated for a fat appointive office if the ticket is elected.

In 1911 Rhea was a candidate for the nomination for State Treasurer before the Democratic Convention. The testimony before the Interstate Commerce Commission revealed the following letter from Browder & Browder, lawyers, of Russellville, Rhea's home town:

"Law Office Browder and Browder, Russellville, Ky., April, 10 1911.

"Judge Dearing: 'Will you send pass and let President's office have this letter for their file?'

W. L. Mapother, Esq., First Vice President, Louisville, Ky.

"Our friend, T. S. Rhea, is going to be nominated for State Treasurer of the Democratic State ticket. Of course he has an opponent, but we do not think there is the slightest doubt but that he is on the prearranged slate. When he gets to Frankfort, it will be demonstrated in a short time that he has got more sense than the entire aggregation up there, and we would like you very much to give him an annual pass in Kentucky, which will be of great use to him in making his present canvass.

"It is not necessary to suggest the importance of the office he will hold if you can do this, we will be glad to deliver him the pass.

"Yours very truly,
"BROWDER & BROWDER."

On this request there was the following notation, as presented before the commission:

"Issue good until July 1st. C. J. W. 4-13. W. L. M. I recommend such pass until July 1, 1911, and all the year if nominated. H. L. S."

It will be observed that Rhea in the position of State Treasurer (to which he was elected) would be a member of the State Board of Valuation and Assessment, which places the valuation on railroad property for taxation.

MAN INSTANTLY KILLED WHEN AUTO TIRE EXPLODES

Vine Grove, Ky.—Waverly McClure, 25, was instantly killed at Camp Knox when a motor tire he was pumping up exploded, a piece of the steel rim penetrating his brain. He was a chauffeur, employed by the Motor Transportation Company. His home was in this city.

Mt. Sterling, Ky.—Many farmers of the county do not know that the law requires them to trim shrubbery and bushes along the roadway which abuts their property, and that fence corners and hedges must be kept free of weeds.

EXPLODED DYNAMITE IS CLUE TO CULPRITS

Louisville, Ky.—Preliminary measures on the part of the Louisville Railway Company thwarted an attempt to dynamite a car on the Ortel Interurban line at Wingfield Station, a half mile beyond the city limits on the Elgin street road, Thursday. Two sticks of dynamite were found in the groove of the left rail of the single track at that point. On the rail were found five spots, about the size of a dime, believed to have been nitroglycerine, put there as concussion caps to explode the dynamite when the car passed over the rail. Federal and local authorities believe that the finding of the dynamite on the Ortel line unexploded may soon bring developments which will be followed by arrests. It is considered certain that an examination of the two sticks will show where it was made and to whom it was sold, furnishing a clue as to where the dynamiters are obtaining their explosives and ending in their apprehension.

PROTECTION

When life's shadows grow dim and the twilight of years settles upon us, the most comforting companion, the most dependable one to look to for cheer in our declining years—is a substantial bank balance.

We sometimes lose track of the fact that we cannot always work as we do now. Many an old couple could be happier and far more comfortable today if just a little more foresight had been used in their younger days, and the savings habit had been started when money meant less to them than it does today.

Start now to lay aside a little each week to provide a competence for old age. A few cents a day will do it—consider them spent foolishly if necessary, and you will be independent and comfortable when the silver hairs come.

Let us show you how easy it can be done. Remember we pay 3 Per Cent interest.

INSURANCE COMPANIES FILE NEW RATE SCHEDULE

Insurance Companies File Proposed Change in Fire Insurance Rates With State Board.

Frankfort, Ky., September 22.—In response to the notice of hearing to determine the reasonableness of rates and the discriminatory nature of rates as charged on certain classes of risks in Kentucky, Attorneys Thomas Bates and Seymour Edgerton and Elliott Middleton of the Western Actuarial Bureau, all of Chicago, together with G. H. Parker, Manager of the Kentucky Actuarial Bureau, appeared before the Department of Fire Insurance Rates today. The State was represented by N. O. Gray, Superintendent of the Department and the Attorney General Chas. H. Morris and by T. M. Goodloe, Actuary.

The 10 per cent. purchase having been taken off on September 1, making a saving of $750,000 annually to the policy holders of Kentucky, subsequent to the notice of the hearing, the companies, through their attorneys, filed new basis rates for rating the State which, they claimed would tend to equalize rates and as a whole further reduce the premium income of the State.

The Department is gratified at the removal of the 10 per cent. advance as the result of the order for the hearing, and will make an exhaustive test and investigation of the new rates filed before finally passing on them for approval or otherwise.

Local tobacco warehousemen seem generally of the opinion that the tobacco season this year will open about the first of December. The majority of the local tobacco warehouse are opposed to holding the opening off until the first of the year as was done last season.

PRISONERS GET TWO YEARS MORE FOR ESCAPING

Two Additional Years Added to Terms of State Penitentiary Convicts For Escaping From Pen.

Two additional years were added to the terms of ten convicts tried in the Franklin circuit court yesterday on the charge of escaping from the penitentiary or escaping from a guard while employed on road work in the State. The custom heretofore has been to add one year for this offense, but Warden Pythian is inclined to the opinion that heavier sentences for this offense will cause fewer convicts to escape.

Ernest Sprouse, of Covington, asked that the verdict in his case be set aside as he was of the opinion that he was pleading guilty to a sentence of one year instead of two. The court complied with his request.

In the list is Joe Wendling, who is serving a life sentence for murder and recently made a sensational escape from the Frankfort Reformatory, and eluded the officers with a disguise of a woman.

The other convicts getting the additional sentences are C. C. White, Boyd county, grand larceny; J. King, Jefferson county, robbery; Joe Johnson, Jefferson county, horse stealing; Charles Price, Johnson county, house breaking; Harold Henderson, Kenton county, grand larceny; Will Jordan, Jefferson county, house breaking; Charles Feldkercher, Boone county, house breaking; Frank Carter, Fayette county, house breaking.

COMMUNITY CLUB SAVES MASON PEOPLE MONEY

Folks are beginning to learn that the Community Clubs being organized throughout the county by County Agent George Kirk are money savers as well as great boosters for the communities in which they are located.

One Mason county man a few days ago made a purchase from a factory and making the purchase through the Community Club, saved considerable money.

If you would be happy let the other fellow do the worrying.

JOHN FOX'S BEST STORY PLAYED TONIGHT

The Trail of the Lonesome Pine Is The Big Attraction at the Washington Theater Tonight.

As rapid development is demanded in the modern play, Eugene Walter has fate and fortune lay heavy upon the hero in his dramatization of John Fox, Jr.'s widely read story, "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine." Hale's partner warns him against falling in love with the mountain girl; he is told his friends will not receive her and that her kinsfolk will drive him from the country, perhaps kill him if he breaks June's heart.

There are a lot of comedy touches to lighten June's particular scenes in the play. June flashes for a moment as a modern well-gowned woman, and the next moment she discards her attire and flies to the mountain cabin in her homespun. Jane Ware portrays June as one of the most lovable stage characters ever written. The play comes to the Washington Theater tonight.

LOCAL METHODIST CHURCHES HAVE GOOD RECORD

Both the Third Street M. E. Church and the Forest Avenue M. E. Church have splendid records for the annual conference of the church in Kentucky which meets during the first of October in Louisville. Both churches have had unusually successful years, due in part to the interest created in these churches by the great Centennial Campaign which was conducted.

Aside attending to his usual duties as County Agent, he is acting Secretary of the Maysville Chamber of Commerce, the Mason County Farm Bureau and about five breeders associations and is organizing Community Clubs all over the county. He is also finding time to be of great assistance to the county school teachers in the teaching of agriculture in the public schools.

Why Central Can Not Answer Questions

The duty of the switchboard operator is to answer your number calls and get connections for you.

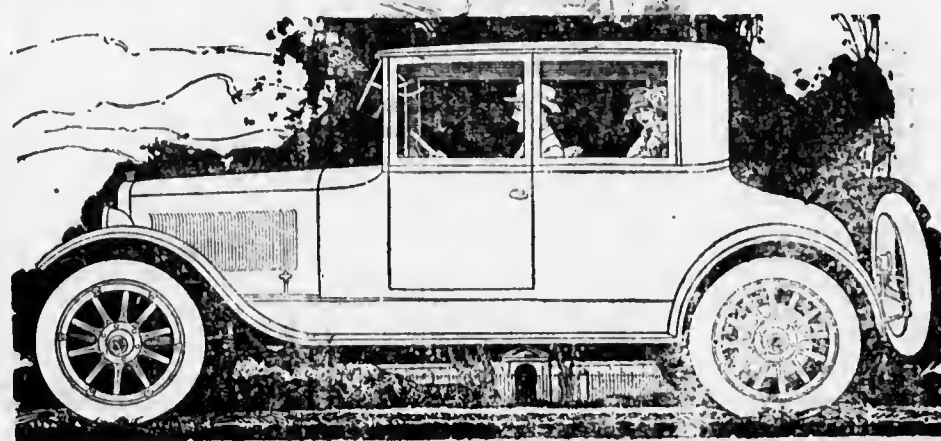

If she stopped to answer questions, the number of calls would pile up and the service would be delayed; this would be an injustice to the other subscribers.

When in response to a question, the operator says: "I will give you Chief Operator," she is obeying her instruction.

If you cannot find what you want in the telephone directory, ask the operator for "Chief Operator" and she will connect you with the "Chief Operator" where your questions will be promptly answered.

MISSING CHILD WAS ON PAWPAW HUNT

Former Dover Girl Missing From Cincinnati Home Since Sunday Morning Returns Home.

The Cincinnati Times-Star says: The lure of hunting pawpaw in the country and the unattractiveness of returning home in the rain were the underlying facts in the mysterious disappearance from home Sunday of Irene Worthington, 9, for whom the police were seeking after she left home Sunday morning.

The child returned home Wednesday morning. She told her mother, Mrs. Ed Worthington, that she had ridden to the end of the Warsaw avenue car line Sunday morning and met Blanche Rose, 9, Fournier and Mill streets, at the end of the line. From there they started their hunt for pawpaw. Later she went home with the other little girl, and the rain Sunday afternoon and Monday persuaded her the best thing to do was to remain there.

P. S.—She did not get any pawpaw. She got something else when she reached home.

STRIKERS ARE DRIFTING BACK TO STEEL MILLS

Many Steel Workers Who Went Out When Strike Was First Called Are Going Back.

Pittsburgh, September 24.—An increasing drift back to the mills of men who have been on strike; spreading of the outbreaks of violence, and the determination of the strike leaders to resort to picketing are the most significant features of the steel situation today.

"We feel very much encouraged," was the word that came from the Carnegie Steel Company's offices a few hours after the day shift went to work in the plants of that company which are in operation. At Clairton it was given out that more departments were to be placed in operation today.

The National Committee for Organizing Iron and Steel Workers will meet here, today, with Chairman John J. Fitzgerald, who will leave later for Washington to appear before the Senate Committee on Education and Labor which will begin on Thursday its investigation of the strike.

Disorders, incident to the strike, continued in the Pittsburgh district yesterday and last night. The most serious outbreak occurred at Farrell, Pa., where two men were killed in a clash between strikers and their sympathizers and State troopers. In the disorders of Monday and Tuesday, at Farrell, New Castle and other points four persons have been killed, more than a score shot, many others have been slightly wounded and hundreds of arrests have been made.

KENTUCKY STEEL PLANTS RUNNING

Ashland, Ky., September 24.—In view of the fact that iron and steel districts of the United States are all affected by the big steel strike, interest in the eastern part of Kentucky centers in Ashland where all plants are operating as usual and there is no indication of a strike.

The situation in Ashland district is peculiar at least in one respect. Most of the iron and steel workers in Ashland own their homes and are earning splendid wages and are thoroughly satisfied. As one of the steel workers said he saw no reason why the steel workers in Ashland should become involved in trouble between the United States Steel Corporation and its workers.

Ashland and fronton, Ohio, plants are all independent and hence have no connection with the steel strike. It is believed in Ashland that their mills will continue to operate as heretofore in a manner satisfactory to the owners and workmen.

DRILLING FOR OIL IN BATH COUNTY

The Fleming Gazette says: In Bath county near the Fleming county line at Johnson's Ferry a well is being drilled for oil by the parties who have contracted to drill for the Flemingsburg Oil Co. later on. At present the Bath well is about 15 feet deep and two small strokes of oil have been reported by the drillers. They express confidence in the prospects for a better find when they get deeper.

MAYSVILLE BAND IS HIGHLY PRAISED BY OHIO PAPERS

Two West Union Newspapers Have High Compliments For Our Famous Boys Band.

The people of West Union and Adams county greatly enjoyed the music made at the big West Union Fair by our Boys' Band. This is shown by the compliments passed on the band by the two Adams county newspapers.

The Peoples' Defender says: "The music of the Maysville Boys' Band was a revelation to our people. It is truly surprising that a band of this size and with a number of the youngsters under 12 years of age, can render such excellent music in such perfect manner. Their selections were many and of a most catchy nature, and the lads were not stingy with their music, either, for they remained over that evening and gave our people an hour's concert on the Court House lawn. The boys were well pleased with their treatment here, and they certainly played themselves into the hearts of the West Union and Adams county people."

The Adams County Record, the other Adams county newspaper, says: "One of the special attractions on Thursday was the famous Boys' Band of Maysville which is composed of about forty boys and several girls of Maysville, and is without a doubt one of the best organizations of its kind in this section of the country. This band is managed by J. B. Russell, of Maysville, and is making quite a reputation at the different fairs in Southern Ohio and Kentucky where they have played. We have been informed that arrangements have been made whereby they will be at the fair again next year."

CARNIVAL MAY COME HERE

The largest carnival company which has visited Kentucky this year—the World at Home Shows—are now exhibiting at Lexington. These are the same shows which exhibited at the Kentucky State Fair, Louisville, this year. It is understood that the shows want to come to Maysville for a week at the close of their Lexington engagement. It is said the shows are high class in every respect.

ROBBERY AT AUGUSTA STORE LAST NIGHT

Local Police Asked to Assist in Locating Thieves Who Robbed Big Augusta Store Tuesday Evening—Left Old Working Clothes.

Chief of Police Harry A. Ort was asked by the authorities at Augusta this morning to assist them in locating thieves who, some time Tuesday evening, broke into the Barkley general merchandise store in that city and helped themselves to a suit of clothes each and other articles.

The owners of the store have thus far been unable to learn just what articles were taken but they know that there are three good men's suits gone and several other smaller articles.

It is supposed that the robbers are three young men for on the floor of the store when it was opened this morning, the proprietor found three work suits which had been discarded by the thieves when they donned their new suits to which they helped themselves from Mr. Barkley's stock.

The Bracken county authorities have no clue to who the thieves might have been and the local police are on the lookout for three strangers wearing new suits of clothes and they will be arrested on sight.

VOTE ON BOND ISSUE

The women of California were a factor in the success of the $40,000,000 Good Road Bond Issue, which was voted in that state recently by practically a 7 to 1 vote.

Concerning the voting, Mrs. William Falger of Moresta, says: "In the nice clean garage where I went to vote sat four women and one man as the election board, two bouquets of roses were on the long table—a box of candy had just been passed. How I did wish some of the wild ants I have met could have looked in upon that peaceful scene."

WHEN TO GATHER ROOTS AND HERBS

For medicinal purposes, roots and herbs should be gathered when their medicinal properties are at their best. For instance, roots of annual plants should be dug just before their flowering season, and roots of biennial or perennial plants after the tops have dried. All these things are taken into consideration in gathering the roots and herbs, many tons of which are used annually in preparing that most successful of all remedies for woman's ills, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

MORROW AT OWENTON

By far the largest political meeting ever held in Owen county was held on Monday, September 22, when Edwin P. Morrow, Republican candidate for governor, spoke to a large audience in the Court House at Owenton. He was met at Sparta by an automobile cavalcade of 60 machines, decorated with flags and bunting. Despite a heavy rainfall the people turned out by hundreds to greet the candidate.

Owen county is a big Democratic county and four years ago in the total vote for Stanley and Morrow for Governor, Stanley's plurality was 1,600. All predictions now are that Morrow will make a tremendously strong race against Black.

Tickets for the Trail of the Lonesome Pine which is the attraction at the Washington Theater this evening have been selling well and every indication is that there will be a full house. The cast which will present this play is said to be one of the best on the road.
